

Venice Bridge, City Financial Woes Growing

Bond Payments to and Profits for City

Confronted with a steady accumulation of a financial problem, the voters of the city council Friday night voted to set aside $1 million from the working cash fund to meet current expenses.

At the same time, council members received a report from the city's Treasurer, John Anderson, that the September disbursements of $170,211 and an October balance of only $22,791 in the working cash fund.

Adoption of the resolution authorized the city to transfer $1 million from the working cash fund to the city general fund follows by only $100,000 the city's $1 million obligation to the working cash fund for money borrowed in 1968.

The $98,000 repayment, plus the $2,000 interest, will be paid from the city's Broadway underground parking garage fund, which is a sewer fund, was included in the city's 1968 budget and was not accounted primarily for the

In addition, he said, Vernalis has a 1985 operating budget of $1,055,000, which means taxes and therefore will receive but little aid from the state.

The city will continue, therefore, to operate under a strict economy program and the city council held a minimum. The city council recently set rates provided in the 1986 operating budget, subject to the 1989 tax rate referendum carried or was defeated.

This money, however, was invested immediately in government certificates as part of McKinley Bridge Revenue Fund. It is being kept intact to help finance the city's share of

Detention Home Needed as Aid to Rehabilitation

Completely revised services for handling of juvenile cases would be made possible by the construction of a Madison county detention home — a proposal that will be accepted or rejected by voters on Nov. 8, county officials are stressing.

A detention home as planned by Madison county if authorization of a 1.666-cent per $100 valuation tax is approved in the referendum would permit services similar to, but on a smaller scale, than those provided by the City of St. Louis' $3 million dollar home, it was reported.

If the tax is approved and the detention home built, according to James J. Reidelberger, chief probation officer of Madison county, the housing of dependent, delinquent and truancy cases will be made possible pending court action. In the past, Madison county has been unable to handle these cases because of overcrowding with St. Clair cases and facilities are unavailable to Madison county.

This requires release of many youngsters whose detention is preferable but jointly with the Madison county home, under present plans, would provide a full-time superintendent, cooks and janitors. A full-time physician would be on call at all times.

Mental Health Tax Would Qualify for Matching Funds

Members of the Citizens Committee for Comprehensive Mental Health in Madison County were told by representatives of the Illinois Department of Mental Health at a Thursday evening meeting that funds provided by a Nov. 8 referendum for mental health services in this county would represent a substantial savings to residents.

It was asserted that this would be possible because of the state and federal monies that would become available to the county on a matching basis.

In explaining how the referendum can save taxpayers money, Thomas J. Fitzgerald, executive director of the Madison County Mental Health Center, said it costs about $8 per day for each patient in the State Mental Hospital.

He went on to say that through expansion of existing mental health facilities, persons treated for mental illness could, in a majority of cases, be treated in the county, thereby eliminating the need for admittance to a state hospital.

Hope to Cut Hospitalization
Fitzgerald said it has been the experience of counties that have adopted a tax based on House Bill 708 that when comprehensive mental health services become available the incidence of hospitalization and loss of time at work is reduced as much as 80%.

Representatives of the Illinois Department of Mental Health reported that in a national study of the incidence of the cost of mental illness, a President's Panel Report listed the per capita cost for lifetime institutionalization for a retarded person at $139,000. Cost of institutional cases in Illinois involving mentally handicapped persons ranges from $4 per day at the Lincoln State School to $24 per day at Illinois Pediatric Hospitals.

Monies generated through passage of the mental health referendum would provide for intensive care services for the mentally retarded and training workshops, plus the comprehensive mental health services needed to diagnose and treat mental illnesses of all types.

Endorsed by Doctors
The mental health tax was endorsed by the membership of the Madison County Medical Society at its monthly meeting last week.

The program was described as including mental health treatment in major cities of the county; 24-hour emergency services; services for the mentally retarded and emotionally disturbed in the county's schools; and assistance to various health and social agencies. Release of state and federal funds depends upon the availability of local funds provided for in the bill, the Medical Society emphasized.

Dr. Peter Lekkas and Dr. Edward H. Cornell of Alton and Dr. Norman L. Claybourn of Granite City were accepted as new members of the Medical Society.

Mrs. Kulenkamp in Reunion With Other 1950 Contestants

A reunion of "Miss Illinois" of 1950, Mrs. Jack Kulenkamp, the former Kitty Kleinschmidt of this city, and two other Miss America contestants, Mrs. Jack Batteeson and Miss Phyllis Batteeson, took place in St. Louis recently.

They met for luncheon at a St. Louis restaurant and after a visit and reminiscing of the Atlantic City pageant and the 1960 reunion, also in Atlantic City, they went to the home of Mrs. Kern whose husband, the Rev. Kern, has served churches in Miami, Fla., Boston and now in St. Louis. He was weekly programs on two radio stations. The Kerns, both ordained ministers at Unity Church of Christianity in Lee's Summit, Mo., serve Christ Unity Church on Skinner Blvd., St. Louis. They reside in Webster Groves and have six children.

Mrs. Kern attended Northwestern University where she studied speech and radio. She was one of eight women selected in the greater St. Louis area in 1965 by the Professional Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi and presented with a plaque. She was also one of those responsible for the Magdala House program, a halfway house in St. Louis for rehabilitation of women prisoners.

The third member of the trio, Miss Batteeson, was in St. Louis recently with the "Funny Girl" company appearing at the American Theatre as an understudy. She was also in St. Louis in 1962 when she was in the cast of "My Fair Lady." She has appeared in City high school.

Madison Humbles Dupo 33-0, Gains First Conference Win

If poor, hapless Dupo had made any points Friday night in its Madison coach Glen Pickering as 33-0 defeat at Madison, they would have been scored by Madison's 235-pound tackle, Burt Armour.

With 8:44 remaining in the first quarter and Madison ahead 6-0, Dupo ran its second play of the game and Armour picked off a pass tossed by Dennis Williamson. "I felt like running out there myself and tackling him," said Jones kept screaming. "Turn around! Turn around!" Finally, at the last minute, Jones was able to shove the lineman out of bounds at the three-yard-line to avert an automatic two-point Dupo safety.

Madison, which had ground out four fast first-and-ten and a Ron Burt TD as the game opened, lost no time in getting out of its own territory after the Armour incident.

Warrior Runners Gain Double Win Over Assumption

Granite City high's cross-country team capped off homecoming week with its second straight victory, beating Assumption at Jones Park Thursday in both varsity and jayvee.

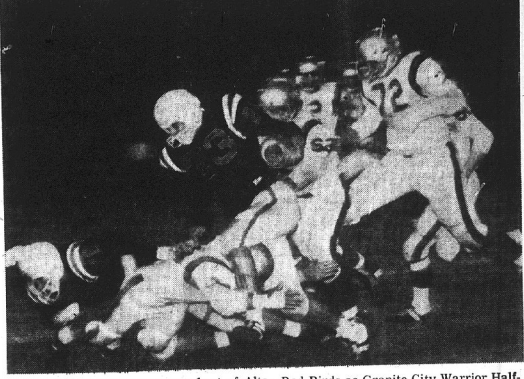

In just varsity, the score was a little more convincing at 21-35. A dead heat in the varsity race had led to a 26-28½ result.

Varsity finishers were Joe Pashea and Dick Harmon. Pashea, 10:30; Dick Harmon 10:30; Richard Hull 5th, 10:30; Gus Schalkam 8th, 10:43; and Mickey Kawala 9th, 10:53.

The unusual half-point came as result of Warrior Mickey Kawala and Assumption's John Sullivan ending in a dead heat for 9th and 10th position. "I added nine and 10 and divided to give each boy nine and a half," said coach Dick Harmon.

In jayvee, Mark Pashea was 2nd in 11:28; Tom Oram 3rd, 11:38; Dennis McGee 4th, 11:43; Mike White 5th, 11:44; and Tom Niebur 7th, 11:48.

Next action for the Warrior was the Assumption Invitational Friday, Oct. 14. Harmon expects 40 schools to compete in an event that will see over 250 runners.

IN HOT PURSUIT are a host of Alton Red Birds as Granite City Warrior Halfback Rich White (23) attempts to escape. Directly ahead of White is Tackle Jim Johnson (78), who was attempting a block. Alton won 27-14.

Warrior Passing, Running Clicks Late But Alton Wins on Long Runs

The speedy and big Alton Redbirds, led by the superior running of 165-pound halfback Avery Wallace, defeated the Granite City Warriors 27-14 Friday evening in the 1966 Homecoming game on the GCIS gridiron. It was a Southern Conference game.

Midway through the first quarter, Alton halfback Avery Wallace raced 67 yards for the first score of the game. It was Wallace who graced his way through the Granite City line for a 35-yard touchdown run in the second period, making the half-time score 14-0.

Alton scored twice more in the second half to lead 27-0. Wallace, who had already gained a substantial amount of rushing yards, went off tackle for 55 yards and the third-quarter six-pointer. The Redbirds' Rick Robley added Alton's final tally in the fourth period.

Granite City scored twice in the last quarter of play to make the final score more respectable, but lacked sufficient time to catch up.

Long Warrior TD Drive
Midway through the fourth period, the Warriors received one of their few breaks. With fourth down and four yards to go on its 27, the GCIS had Terry Moore punt.

Alton got a bit too anxious in its attempt to block the kick, and was penalized 15 yards for roughing the kicker. With the ball on its own 42, Granite City began to move.

Quarterback Steve Conway hit end Jerry Jackson for 18 yards. With a first down on the enemy 40, Conway clicked to halfback Ron Laws for six yards.

With third and four, Conway clicked to Jackson for an 18-yard gain. From the 15, Laws took a costly fumble at the Cahokia goal line and the Comanches defeat the Warrior jayvee football team 27-0 here Saturday morning.

The Warrior jayvees were six inches away from the Cahokia goal in the third period when they fumbled. At another point, the Warriors had a pass intercepted on Cahokia's six-yard-line. Cahokia, capitalizing on many mistakes, scored in every quarter.

Coolidge Gridders Get 'Fumble-itis'
One of the costliest fumbles and a bad pass from center set up an Edwardsville third-quarter TD that beat Coolidge here Thursday in a 7-0 junior high football game. Six of the Braves' fumbles were recovered, usually after long drives past midfield.

The game's lone TD occurred after Coolidge fumbled on its own 20-yard-line. The Braves held Edwardsville to downs, but after Coolidge took over and then had to punt, a bad pass from center allowed Edwardsville to recover on the Coolidge four, from where the TD was scored.

Madison's freshman football team proved it wasn't overrelied by mighty Cahokia Thursday night and sent the Comanches home with a 14-7 beating. Harold James scored both of the young Trojans' TDs—one in the first period and the other in the second period. Quarterback Ronnie Britt and Ted Narvaez accounted for Madison's PAT's. The visitors finally got on the scoreboard midway in the last quarter on a pass play. Madison's frosh are now 2-1.

Jones Completes TD Drive Dupo could only run three plays before punting as the second half began. Madison, which could pick up five yards almost anytime it needed it, drove steadily toward a third score.

Jones made it 19-0 as he scored from six yards out. Owca's PAT kick was nullified on an offside penalty and Burt ran over for the extra point.

In what seemed like an extremely fast third quarter, Dupo, which only had the ball for two running plays in the period, failed to move in the air at all. Madison received with only seconds left and junior half Terry Brake grabbed the ball in the air well.

The fourth quarter opened with Geroff hitting end Joe Collins with a 27-yard toss, one of Madison's best aerials of the night. They gained only 69 yards over all in the sky.

The play set up Jones' third TD
and Owca connected to make the score 27-0.

Touchdown Called Back
With 10:31 left, Dupo was again helpless and Madison's apparent fifth TD of the night, with Shipps scoring from 34 yards out, was called back on an offside penalty.

Shipps carried again for five yards and two plays later, Burt scampered 30 yards to score Madison's final TD. A bad pass from center saw Owca's PAT kick go wide. Coach Pickering, who by this time had emptied the Trojan bench got a look at sophomore

Jim Scott and Alan Glasper at the quarterback spot.

Dupo, which only ran six plays in the last period, was on Madison's 24 with seconds left

A new organization to oppose the proposed constitutional amendment of the Illinois Revenue Act, subject to referendum
Nov. 8, has been formed, according to an announcement by Elroy C. Sandquist Jr., president of the City Club of Chicago and chairman of the Chicago Bar Association, which has been formed on State and Municipal Taxation.
Sandquist, a member of the new organization, which has been titled "Defeat the Revenue Amendment," said the organization was set up with bi-partisan support to oppose the Revenue Amendment restrictive than the present article and would be a step backward in the modernization of Illinois' tax structure.

ident of the National Farmers Organization, said the purpose of the new corporation has the support of the state, representing all tion. Krampf, of Alexander,

ers, the members poll of the Il-

Indictment Sought Now In Armed Robbery Case

Theodore Kellerman, 25, of 1116 State street, Madison, was bound over to the Madison county grand jury Friday afternoon by Magistrate Joseph Kelleher at Edwardsville on a charge of armed robbery last Monday night at the Onk drive-in liquor store, 2600 Madison avenue.

A grand jury indictment may be attempted today before the grand jury makes its final report to circuit court. Leon Scroggins of Granite City, chief assistant state attorney, said after the hearing.

He made the comment after Kellerman, a former prison inmate, again was released from custody on his own recognizance by Judge Kelleher. If an indictment is returned, the circuit court then could stipulate a bail bond, Scroggins said.

If not, Kellerman could remain at liberty without posting any special amount as bond until the current grand jury may be recalled. It could take several months, officials pointed out.

Kellerman was arrested Tuesday afternoon at his place of employment on a charge of robbing the attendant at the liquor store of $200. He was released on his own recognizance the next day in magistrate's court.

Dinner Oct. 19 to Aid County GOP Candidates

A veteran speaker and prominent Republican, John Henry Alford of Peoria, will be the featured speaker at a benefit dinner for Madison county Republican candidates at the Franklin Masonic Lodge, Washington avenue, Alton, Wednesday, Oct. 19, at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Karl P. Detterding, dinner chairman, announced that the dinner will be a benefit for divided equally among the four county candidates' campaigns. It is planned to have a $2 profit from every ticket sold.

The candidates are James M.
Bailey, for county superintendent of schools; Peter Fuchs, for county treasurer; Walter J.
Emde, for county sheriff; and Mrs. Vernice Wortman, for county clerk.

Mrs. Robert C. Case, president, commented that "there hasn't been a Republican candidate elected in Madison county for nearly 20 years. This situation is deplorable. It leads to an entrenched political machine, with resultant abuses."

"I feel confident that we have the sufficiently enlightened and sophisticated electorate to end this dangerous trend toward a one-party system. Our candidates are of the highest caliber."

Reservation deadline is Thursday, Oct. 13. No tickets will be sold at the door. Tickets can be obtained from the ticket chairman by calling 462-0729.

Clerk Plans Extra Hours For Late Registrations

The Madison county clerk's office at Edwardsville will remain open until 8 p.m. today and tomorrow to receive last-minute registrations and corrections to existing voters' records, Miss Eulalia Hotz, county clerk, announced this morning.

Closing of the office at 8 p.m. tomorrow will be the deadline for all registration filings, Miss Hotz said.

In addition, Miss Hotz said, permanent deputy registrars throughout the county will be available both evenings for registration filing in their homes or offices. There are 27 permanent deputy registrars, 12 of them in the Quad-City area. During evening hours, appointment by telephone is required by most deputy registrars.

New voters who may register to vote in the Nov. 8 election are persons who will be 21 years of age on or before Nov. 8, who have lived in the state for at least 90 days and in the precinct 30 days.

Record corrections consist primarily of changes in name, either through marriage or court order, and changes in addresses.

Change of address may be made on the reverse side of a voter's registration slip (a pink card), which then may be mailed to the county clerk's office before Oct. 11.

Following the registration deadline, Miss Hotz said, her office will begin revision of precinct registration books for the Nov. 8 balloting.

Deputy registrars where registration filings will be accepted in the Quad-City area include:

Granite City—Mrs. Olive Sigite, 2229 Bryan avenue, evenings by appointment. Phone TR 7-2538; Mrs. Rose Turner, 2141 Waterman avenue. Phone for appointment, WE 1-4129; Mrs. Betty Schulze, 2336 Warren avenue. Phone for appointment TR 7-4778; Mrs. Elvira Thurber, 1832 State street, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Evenings by appointment. Dr. Pake said the only condition set by the committee is "The sincere willingness of top labor and business leaders to cooperate in such an effort."

The Industrial Development organization has been approached by labor, management, government and civic groups requesting the corporation develop some plan to improve labor-management relations throughout the bi-state area as an essential step toward greater and faster economic growth throughout the area.

Dr. Pake said, "It is apparent that there are some differences of opinion which should be resolved before a definite program is evolved. Nothing will be accomplished without the support of labor and management."

He said that RIDC's first step will be to bring about "a top-level dialogue" of both groups to define the real causes of labor-management problems. He indicated that while there are areas of disagreement, there also is a broad base of mutual understanding of the area's economic problems, and that "it is likely a successful dialogue can be achieved."

Conferences with top leaders in labor and management will get under way this week, Dr. Pake said.

Industrial Procurement Conference Set Friday

A Southern Illinois industrial procurement conference will be conducted Friday at East St. Louis. Registration will be held from 8 to 9 a.m.

Speakers will include U.S. Sen. Paul Douglas, U.S. Rep. Melvin Price, K. S. Vandergrift of the Small Business Administration, Gen. Horace Davidson who will present the luncheon address, and representatives of the Department of Defense and other federal agencies.

Topics will include methods and procedures in obtaining federal contracts. Films will be shown in the afternoon in addition to an optional counseling session.

Hairdressers to Meet

The Elite Hairdressers Association will hold a workshop at 7 p.m. today at the Granite City School of Beauty Culture. All hairdressers are being asked to bring a model to learn new trends and fall fashions.

Optimists Get Inside Info on 'Big Red'

A goal that the Football Cardinals have not been able to reach since 1949—five straight victories—is in sight this week as the Big Red takes on the New York Giants at Civic Center Busch Memorial Stadium Sunday afternoon, according to Joe Pollack, public relations director for the St. Louis National Football League club. He addressed his remarks Thursday to Granite City Optimist club at a luncheon meeting in the YMCA.

The Big Red is presently in first place in the NFL Eastern Division with a 4-0 season record, while the Giants have three losses and one tie mark.

Pollack pointed out that the Cardinals have never beaten the Giants in St. Louis and their record against the New Yorkers is a poor 3-8 since 1960. "In fact, the best the Big Red has been able to do against the Giants was a 10-10 tie in the mud two years ago," he added.

The club official explained some of the operations of a professional football team and described major problems which can arise when dealing with different personalities of individual players. Mental attitude is the number one problem for coaches, he said. "Over confidence, or lack of it, can be fatal to a football team."

He discussed procedures used by the coaching staff during half-time breaks, methods which are dependent on the flow of the game at that point. He added that a second-half surge by the Cardinals team has contributed to winning games this season.

Complimenting the players to determine their reactions and attitudes is a must, Pollack said. "The welfare of the individual football player nowadays goes far beyond his physical condition alone."

Monday is an off-day for players, the official said, however, the coaching staff spends the day studying films shot the previous day and reviewing other movies showing the strengths and weaknesses of the team opposing club. Light workouts are held Tuesday with the players also reviewing game films.

Most of the week is spent in general practice and specific offensive and defensive plays characteristic of next week's opponent.

Thirty-one attended the luncheon, including guests, Paul Hager, engineering engineer, Steve Kurilla of California and Milton Strong, a representative of the Ford Gum Machine Co. Frank introduced the guest speaker.

Optimist President Wilbur Triches announced an executive board meeting for 5 p.m. today at his office, and a report on the Optimist Christmas tree sales project was given by Arthur Roeman and Charles Barbecue, co-chairmen. Club members received advance tickets which they will sell for $1, toward the cost of a Christmas tree. This year's benefit sale will start about Dec. 1, it was announced.

At this week's meeting, Mrs. Jo Leslie Meyer, Illinois Power Co. home economist, will demonstrate the durability and quality of new man-made fabrics now being used in men's wear.

Hospital Tours Explain Facilities, Present Needs

A dinner and a tour to acquaint Quad-Cityans with the facilities at St. Elizabeth Hospital and with the hospital's needs were held Thursday for local business, labor and industrial leaders and their wives.

The hospital currently is considering a multi-million dollar 30-year expansion and modernization program which would increase its bed capacity from the present 242 to 314 and modernize or replace existing outmoded facilities as well as provide added parking.

The dinners and tours are being hosted by members of the advisory board, and the cost of the dinners, preparation and transportation is being met by the hospital's business fund, groups and individuals.

A highlight of the tour is a visit to the operating rooms, where the guests are garbed in surgical gowns, caps, masks and even "socks" to cover shoes.

Thursday night's tour also included stops at the laundry, kitchen and to the emergency rooms. The emergency department would be expanded and relocated in a new wing under the proposed program.

John P. Dreves, public relations director and tour guide, pointed out St. Elizabeth Hospital was the driving factor in obtaining state legislation to permit physicians from foreign countries to staff emergency rooms. "This paved the way for them also open their own offices, and we've received congratulatory notes from hospitals all over the state," Dreves said.

Alert Card of Cities By Sgt. Poole Cited

Air Force Staff Sgt. William E. Poole, a former Granite City man, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Poole, 1933a Edison avenue, has received the top individual performance award at the Laredo, Tex., base for an outstanding contribution to safe military aircraft maintenance.

His wife, Darlene, and son, William Jr., reside in Laredo with him.

In presenting a special uniform pin to Sgt. Poole, Col. James W. Bradford, wing commander, said his exceptional alertness has resulted many times in the discovery of discrepancies during aircraft maintenance inspections.

If allowed to remain uncorrected, the conditions he detected could have resulted in the loss of pilots and aircraft, the commander noted.

Endorse Demo Ticket

Granite City Democratic precinct committeewomen voted last week to support the straight ticket Nov. 8 Mrs. Jean Francis, president, conducted the meeting at the East Side Levette District building and Mrs. Mary Yoboy and Mrs. Agnes Barunika, hostesses, arranged games and refreshments. Application cards for the test and information bulletins are available at any local Selective Service board in the state. Applications must be postmarked not later than Oct. 21.

Tests for college students in this area will be conducted at Southern Illinois University-Southern Campus. The Madison county Selective Service board office is located at Edwardsville.

To be eligible for the test an applicant must be a Selective Service registrant who expects to request a deferment as a college student and must not have taken the test previously. The test score itself does not determine eligibility for deferment, but will provide the local boards with evidence of a student's aptitude for continued college work.

Firemen Give Suggestions On Controlling Brush Fires

Quad-City area fire chiefs issued a unanimous warning this week—"Avoid a brush with the law when you burn your brush."

The warning is to remind citizens that this is Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 9-15.

Fire chiefs further warned that although the pungent odor of burning grass, rubbish and leaves may lend something to the "Fall atmosphere," such fires can get out of hand.

The firefighters give the following tips:

Choose a still day and rake all burnable trash and dry grass away from buildings, wooden fences and posts. Have a wet broom and at least a bucket of water on hand, but still better, have a hose or tank of water on hand.

Never leave a fire unattended nor should children be allowed near fires. And finally, when the job is completed, residents should wet the area down and make sure all fire and embers are extinguished.

Expect Bid Call On S. Nameoki Rd. Early Next Year

With the north end of the Nameoki road improvement project nearing completion, city officials are beginning to concentrate on the section of the roadway south of Madison avenue and are hopeful the state highway department will call for bids in January or February.

The early 1967 bid call would pave the way for work to start when the weather permits in the spring. At the present time, the city is consulting with state highway officials to determine if blacktopping can be carried out before winter on the north section from Madison avenue to the north city limits.

A letter was received last week from the state listing encroachments on the south section right-of-way. It listed a total of 41 encroachments either protruding or overhanging the right-of-way and which must be removed before bids are called.

Commenting on the letter, Alderman B. H. Sternberg, chairman of the council's Street committee, said, "We intend to have all the right-of-way secure and all encroachments removed in short order. More insignificant obstacles can be cleared through revocable permits."

He explained the owner of property on which an encroachment exists may permit it to remain by signing a special form in which he guarantees to remove the obstacle, such as a canopy or sign, at any time the removal is required.

MORE ABOUT Partney

Then a motion was made later by Alderman Boyd, seconded by Alderman Robertson, that the city attorney bring in an ordinance granting wage increases of $25 and $11 per month naming employees and amount to be received; and this motion carried.

"This ordinance will be before the council meeting to be held Oct. 17, and if passed the wage increases will be over the amount allowed in the budget for this fiscal year.

"Granite City operates under the aldermanic form of government as set up in the Illinois statutes. This form provides for representation by wards, with two aldermen elected from each of the eight wards.

The mayor, city clerk, city treasurer and superintendent of streets are elected at large. The comptroller, attorney and engineer are appointed by the mayor with the consent of the council.

"The council is set up by committees, consisting of 13 committees, with two special committees, with three aldermen serving on each committee. The mayor is an ex-officio member of each committee. The committees are Finance, Ordinance, Street and Alley, Police, Fire and Water, Sanitary, Traffic Light, Planning and Zoning, City Building, Personnel, Air Pollution, Pollution Plant, Special Sewer and Special Quiet Park.

Council's Authority
"The city council, as in the case of the municipality itself, exercises limited and delegated powers and it can exercise only such powers as are conferred on it, either expressly or impliedly by the General Assembly. It is a fundamental principle that a city council cannot enlarge its own powers, and its acts in excess of its powers are nugatory.

"A city council is powerless to act except when the members act together and as a body, and the action of aldermen in order to bind the city, must be taken at a council meeting duly organized or where, as in the case of committees, some authority has been conferred by the council.

"The city council is legislative in nature, taken in concert in council meetings, and then the powers are limited to those expressly sanctioned by the statutes and the General Assembly and such exercise of powers cannot conflict with the exercise of duties and powers heretofore delegated to other officers or offices by the statutes.

Granite City employs the following in the different departments:

Police department—41 employees.
Fire department—38 employees.
Street department—25 employees.
Sewage treatment plant—12 employees.
City hall—21 employees.
Crossing guards—13 employees with 3 alternates.
Sanitation department—three part-time employees.
Civil Defense—1 part-time employee.
Humane officer and part-time assistant.
Radio Equipment engineer—part time.
"Welcome to the council meetings the first, third and fourth Mondays of each month to see your government in action."
